paternity of the twins
- William Willson
- Willson Willian

is in question.

Descendents of Peter and Selinda say they were born in 1860 - but they give their age as 18 on 1880 census. They are Not listed on Peters civil war pension. But they are living with Selinda on the 1880 census.

William and Willson are not mentioned in the divorce papers of George and Selinda. But they are named as heirs to Georges estate (their place of residence unknown)

It is possible that even Philip could be their father.

Dear Morgan -

Good to hear from you - and I thank you for the Oler info.

My husband's Oyler line goes back to Melcher Oyler - birth date unknown - (his son) who supposedly was born aboard ship as his parents headed for America. 21238 Melcher married Nancy Duncan 21239 - who's family is believed to have been from Washington Co Va. - I do not have proof of any of this -

This son Jonathan 21240 was born c 1779 - Jonathan married Rachel Johnson 21241 B: 29 Jun 1786 — D: 1866 Two daughters were born to Jonathan & Rachel - Diana 21243 B: c 1802 and Nancy 21245 B: 1805 (3 MAR) - D: 12 NOV 1862 MS.

Along about 1805 Jonathan wanted to move with his Duncan cousins to Lozen Co Ky. Rachel refused - so he sells his property - leaves her with her parents, William & Diana Adams Johnson and takes off. The story goes that this upset William so much that he sells out and heads West. - They were all in Robertson Co TN at this time.

Rachel remarried about 1811 to a Richard Jones 33396 and had several more children - Jonathan was rumored to have been killed by Indians - - - also of moving on to St Louis Mo - where he re married to a Polly Hill 1815.

In 1820 - the Johnsons were in St Clair Co Ala. where Diana 21243 married George Wiggenton 21244 on 28 Sep 1820 - Diana's name is spelled ISIEAR - Nancy 21245 married Thomas Jefferson Reynolds 21246 on 6 Jul 1820 - her name there was IIER From there they wound up in Newton Co MS. I have no information on Diana -

The Johnson's (Henry B: 1838 Son of Isaac B: 1730) 33394 were a clannish lot and stayed pretty much together as they moved from Lancaster Co Pa - to Va - to Rowan Co N.C. to Robertson Co TN. and on to MS. -

From the birth dates of Jonathan & Rachel - and knowing the Johnson's were in Rowan Co N.C. until about 1798. It is possible the Oyler's were in N.C. at the same time -, but most likely, the Oyler's were already in TN when the Johnson's arrived.

After Nancy, I have no information on any more Ogles etc:
The information on Diana and Nancy will be added to your file I'm sure - I just wish I had more to send... but Jonathan - the right Ogler (-etc:) has not turned up - - - - - -

I have had contact with very few Ogler researchers; but the ones I have had contact with are =

as of 1989... Edith Ogler

I believe she has published a book.

The following information is a copy of a letter written to my husbands cousin in 1975 - I have no idea who these people are, and have no way to find out now.

I have seen copies of the 1840-1850 census from Pike Co Mo. and indeed it does have Jonathan Cyler and family along with the Duncan's, but I don't know if this is the same Jonathan that married Rachel Johnson -- I believe the only way to obtain a divorce back then was by an act of the Legislature and most didn't bother - which makes it hard on researchers, unless you really know what you're doing - + I don't.

I hope you can use this information in someway -

Sincerely

Bobbie T Downey

Pearl Gray compiled a brief history on the Tofflemires sometime prior to her death. A copy of it was given to Mervin Tofflemire, who passed it along to me. I have incorporated parts of it here wherever possible. An example of the way generations are sometimes confused is shown in Pearl's history. She states that her grandfather Moses, his brother Aaron, and a cousin, found their way over the mountains into Holland thence to the states, to Pennsylvania and on to Canada.

CHART IIIC-10

10) Samuel Tofflemire b. 10 Apr. 1842 d. 22 May 1930 - the son of Charles and Salomah (Snider) Tofflemire. He married 8 Aug. 1864 Julia Ann Fox b. 8 Aug. 1845 d. 28 July 1921, daughter of Solomon Fox and Jane Benn. Samuel and Julia were both from Colchester and drove to Detroit to be married in Mariners' Church. Samuel owned his own farm and he planted a long row of hardwood Maple trees in the lane. During his retirement years, he bought some of the trees from the man who had purchased the farm. He had the trees made into lumber from which he made furniture. He used larger limbs for pedestals and from smaller limbs he made each of his daughters and granddaughters a rolling pin. Julia Tofflemire was a person of happy nature who sang as she wove carpets, linsy and blankets for her family.

Samuel and Julia Tofflemire had 9 children:

ARNER

(Taken from Dr. John S. Eilar's book on the Ilers and Associated Families, Albuquerque, 1973.)

1796 "Jacob Arner was born in Pennsylvania of German parents. As a mere boy he was forced into the American army, but being loyal to his king he escaped when the army was near the Canadian border, and in time made his way to Essex County, Gosfield Twsp., where he was given 200 acres of land as a reward for his loyalty. Jacob Arner served as a Private in Capt. McDonnel's Company of Butler's Rangers. Adjoining his original 200 acres, he purchased another 200 acres, making 400 acres in one tract in the southwestern part of the Township, along the lake shore. During his lifetime the greater part of this land was cleared and converted into farm land. Jacob married Barbara Arnold who was born in Germany and came to America in 1770 with her parents. Her father was Frederick Arnold, her mother's name was unknown. Her mother died on the voyage over after giving birth to their third child. Frederick Arnold and his second wife were first found in Canada in 1787. 1797

The 6 children of Jacob and Barbara Arner are per Dot Zak's records:

1. John Arner - died young

"Jacob Iler was a progressive, well liked and respected man in his community and I am sure many stories and facts could be found concerning his life in the community of Colchester. He was the progenator of the Iler family in this community. --- Today, 156 years after he settled in Essex County, the community around Colchester is known as the Iler Settlement".
Children of Jacob and Elizabeth Iler:
NOTE: Some of the dates of these children are different from those shown in Dr. Eilar's book. Also an additional child has been added. Dot Zak got the names of the children from a list made by Sheriff John Coatsworth Iler naming his Aunts and Uncles. Dates are from a family Bible, Dot believes is now in the possession of Bell Currie (see p. 22 & 330)

ILER

(From Dr. John S. Eilar's book on the Ilers & Associated Families, Albuquerque, 1973.)

The first Iler in America was Conrad Iler who arrived aboard the ship Allen, 15 Sept. 1729. His wife Margaret and 3 daughters apparently came over with him. The family settled in Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania. Conrad Iler was born around 1690, he died in Manheim Twsp., York Co., Pa. in 1751. His wife Margaret was born before 1700 and died previous to 1763.
Children of Jacob and Margaret Iler, all born in Germany:

4. Jacob Iler b. about 1717
m. Anna Maria _____
They apparently had 4 sons:

C44 twins C42 a. John Frederick Iler b. 1743 Pa.
b. John Jacob Iler b. 1743 Pa.
C43 c. Valentine Iler b. 1745 Pa.
C41 d. Conrad Iler b. 1749 Pa.

C43 c. Valentine Iler b. 1745 Pa. d. 1813 Dayton, Ohio
m. prior to 1771 Susanna Kulp b. 1747 Pa. d. 27 Mar. 1838 at the home of her son Samuel, near Hagerstown, Ind.

C432/I Valentine lived for a time in Maryland. Along with other German families, he and his family left Frederick Co., Md., between 1779 and 1788. They migrated to the Detroit area and Valentine Iler probably spent some time on Grosse Ile. The Ilers were members of the German Baptist-Brethren Church, theyabhorred war and refused to bear arms during the Revolution. These people, who were not loyal to either side during the conflict, could not prove their loyalty to the Crown therefore could not be given grants in Canada. Valentine Eiler was apparently one of these. It seems he did live for a time in Canada but was never officially granted land. In 1792, there was a great exodus of people from Grosse Ile, people who because of their religion refused to take an Oath of Fidelity and Allegance to the Crown. It is believed Valentine and Susanna were among these. The next record of them is found in Dayton, Ohio.
Children of Valentine and Susanna Iler:

C431/J 1) Jacob Iler b. 1771 d. 1843 Colchester
m. Elizabeth Snider b. 1779 d. 1851

C433 2) David Iler b. about 1773

m. Montgomery Co., Ohio, 8 Feb. 1817 James Pottle b. 1780 -
d. 23 Mar. 1852
They had 4 children.

SNIDER

(From Dr. John S. Eilar's book on the Ilers and Associated Families, Albuquerque, New Mexico, 1973, and the SNIDER book, Snider Genealogical and Historical Research Group, 1976, additional information by Dot Zak.)

S1 John Snider b. 1756 d. 1828, was a contemporary of Valentine Iler. His family belonged to the German Baptish-Brethren Church, as did the Ilers. They lived in Plum Creek, Lancaster Co., Pa. and migrated to Ontario at the same time the Ilers did. Isabelle E. Swan, in her book DEEP ROOTS, on Grosse Ile, gave this information, "In 1785, a John Snider was an employee of an "Adventure to Detroit" which involved getting 89 kegs full of bacon, nailing up the kegs and then transporting them from Pittsburg to Detroit." Other statements from Miss Swan's book show John Snider was on Grosse Ile, see p. 4, this history. Some additional notations on him are on p. 136. John Snider's wife was Elizabeth _____

RESIDENT ALIENS ENABLED TO HOLD LAND IN NEW YORK STATE 1790–1825

By KENNETH SCOTT, F.A.S.G.*

In Colonial New York an alien could neither hold nor dispose of real property unless he had obtained letters of denization in England from the king or—up to 1700 in New York—from the governor, or had been naturalized by act of Parliament in England or by act of Assembly in New York. After the Revolution and up to 21 April 1825 an alien in New York could obtain the right to hold and dispose of real estate only by act of the Legislature. The present article gives in chronological order such acts and the names—here alphabetized—of foreigners enabled to take, hold and dispose of land in the State from 1790 through 1825.

In some instances relationships are specified, such as husband, wife, child, brother, sister, or grandson, and place of residence, country, county or town, may be named. Occasionally status may be given. Often, moreover, it is possible to determine with reasonable probability that certain individuals belong to the same family.

On 21 April 1825 an act of the New York Legislature provided an alternative method to enable a resident alien to take and hold real estate. It required that said alien depose that he was a resident of the State, intended to become a citizen of the United States and had taken incipient measures to that end. Such depositions must be filed with the Secretary of State in Albany.[1] Henceforth resident aliens chose, in many instances, to make depositions, while nonresident aliens and many resident foreigners continued to obtain the right to hold and dispose of real estate by special act of legislature.

Act passed 2 Apr. 1790:
- Antoine René Charles De la Forest
- John Foxcroft (who purchased real estate in Queens Co. from James Hicks, of said county)
- John Maunsell
- John C. Rothery

1. In the State Library in Albany are 54 volumes of depositions, 1825–1866. A deposition usually gives the alien's place of residence, often the country of birth, date of birth, time of arrival in America, status, and family relationships. The names of some 4,250 such deponents, with pertinent genealogical information are to be found in New York Alien Residents, 1825–184, compiled by Kenneth Scott and Rosanne were members of that church.[12] Four Catholic and ex-Catholic emigrants are referred to, Anna and Christian Weyh, children of Hans Weyh, a Catholic from the village of Täbingen, "of scandalous conduct"; Philipp Eyler, a "Catholic stocking-weaver" of Oberboihingen; and one ex-Catholic, Pancratius Lengenfelder of Sillenbuch, listed as a "convert from the Diocese of Bamberg or Würzburg." The only other non-Lutherans in the Gerber Lists are the several families of French Waldensians from the villages of Dürrmenz, Pinache, Gross- and Kleinvillars, Knittlingen, and Diefenbach. These, writes the historian Weiss, were descendants of about three thousand Waldenses, for the most part natives of the valleys of Pragela and Perouse, which by the Treaty of Ryswick had been incorporated into France, who left their homes in 1698 to escape persecution by the Catholic state-church of France.[13] In 1699 they were granted extensive privileges by the Duke of Württemberg, and given land on the eastern slope of the Schwarzwald, an area left uncultivated during the wars of the seventeenth century. Here were founded the colonies of Villar[s], Pinache, LaSerre, Lucerne, Queyras, Perouse, Bourset, Mentoule, LaBalme, and Muriers, named after the exiles' homes in France. These settlements remained Reformed in religion and French in culture until the nineteenth century, though intermarriage with German families began almost immediately. From these Waldensian refugees who came to Pennsylvania after a sojourn in hospitable Württemberg, are descended such Pennsylvania German families as the Schappells [Chappelles] of Berks County, and the Armingeons of Lancaster County.

[12]Several of the families listed in Gerber became Moravians; cf. Baur, Christe, Heer, and Stotz. At least one of them, Rudolph Christe, was "awakened" in 1744, while still living in Germany, and made repeated visits to the Moravian community at Herrnhaag, but there is no record of persecution by the Lutheran authorities. It was a different story with the emigration of the Rappites, Württemberg separatists from the Lutheran state church, who, under the leadership of Johann Georg Rapp (1770-1847, settled in Western Pennsylvania in 1803, establishing colonies at Harmony and Economy in Pennsylvania, and New Harmony in Indiana. For a recent treatment of these religious communists, setting them against the background of other similar movements in America, see Alice Felt Tyler, Freedom's Ferment/Phases of American Social History to 1860. (Minneapolis: The University of Minnesota Press, c1944), 121-125.

State of Pennsylvania
Cumberland County, Ss.

On this fifteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty two personally appeared in Open Court before the Honorable John Reed, Esq. President and his Associate Judges of the Court of Common pleas, at a court now holding in the Borough of Carlisle in and for the County of Cumberland aforesaid, Jacob Eyler, a Resident of the said Borough of Carlisle, in the County and State aforesaid aged eighty four years, on the twenty fifth day of July last past, who being first duly sworn according to Law, doth on his Oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed the 7th Day of June A.D. 1832, viz. I was born on the 25th July A.D. 1747 in the town of Sovernheim, in the Palatinate now Kingdom of Bavaria in Germany, from whence I emigrated to North America, and arrived in the City of Philadelphia, in the Month of September 1774 and resided there till some time in the beginning of the Month of December 1776 — when I volunteered as a Private, under a Captain Wills, in the first Battalion Called the City Militia, Commanded by Col. Morgan previous to this no Militia Law was passed nor at this time) the Subaltern Officers of our Company were Lieutenant Rees and Ensign Heil, on our arrival near Trenton we remained in the Shallops for Several Hours, waiting for orders when we landed on the Pennsylvania side, and encamped in the woods opposite Trenton, without tents (nor had we any during the whole Campaign) where we remained for some time, then marched back to Bristol, where we remained until the 25th day of December 1776, on which day we attempted to cross the River Delaware, but were prevented by the Ice, until the following day when we crossed some short distance above Bristol and then marched to Burlington, where we were attached to Genl. Cadwallader's Brigade, and next day marched to Bordentown, from thence to Crosswicks, where our Company lodged in a Quaker Meeting house. Here we remained until in the night of the 2d January 1777 when we marched to Trenton. Some short time after our arrival the Enemy appeared — We were drawn up in order of Battle, when the Cannonading Commenced and lasted until Evening we then removed some short distance into a piece of Woods, where we encamped and lighted our Fires, about Midnight we in Silently withdrew and marched to Princeton where we arrived Some few hours after Sun up here we met some of the British, and had a considerable engagement in which we Captured, about three Hundred Prisoners, from the Battle Ground we marched through Several towns and places (the name of which I cannot now remember) and in two days after arrived in Morristown where we remained until the expiration of the term of our Service some time in February, when at the Special request of General Washington was remained in Service upwards of three weeks longer than our full time and until the

the Reinforcements arrived, and then we returned to Philadelphia. I never received more than a Verbal discharge from the Officers, and about four weeks after our Return we were ordered to muster, and were drawn up in a Circle, when a letter from his Excellency General Washington was read thanking us for our Service rendered the Country.

Some time in the Month of March or April 1780 I do not recollect which, I was ordered out in the Eighth class of City Militia Commanded by Captain Conrad Rush & then I was again called on duty in and near the City of Philadelphia Guarding Prisoners and deserters and near the Expiration of said term I was attacked with a Violent Fever of which I was confined between Seven and Eight Weeks under the Care of Doctor Atkinson Physician of the Regiment — By reason of my removal from the City in the year 1784 to said Borough of Carlisle, (where I have resided ever since) as also from the best information from time to time received on enquiry, I firmly believe that none of my Officers or Companions in Arms are now living, that at the time I was out in Service the first and second tour of Duty and confined by Sickness while in Service as aforesaid amounted in the whole to upwards of Seven Months —

I have no Documentary Evidence to prove my different terms of Service nor do I know of any person living who can testify to them.

The Certificate here to annexed containing the names of Persons to whom I am known and who certify to my character and to the credit my Statements deserve.

I hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declare that my name is not on the Pension Roll of the agency of any State whatever —.

Captain Peachey Gilmer, a member of this family, commanded a company of militia for several years during the Revolution. He was succeeded by Captain George Pence.

John Gilmer, his brother, married a Miss Bear, of the Elkton neighborhood, and lived and died at "Lethe."

George Rockingham Gilmer, who was governor of Georgia, was born at "Lethe." He wrote a book called "The Georgians," and in it gives an amusing account of the efforts of the early settlers around the foot of Peaked Mountain to discover a traditionary silver mine in that mountain. This tradition seems to be well founded.

The Eiler Family

Peter Eiler acquired a large tract of land in east Rockingham, bordering on the Page line, prior to 1755.

George Eiler, whose home was in the Mill Creek Valley, below Massanetta Springs, was a descendant of Peter Eiler; and so was William Eiler, whose home was on the Keezletown Road, a short distance below Peale's Cross Roads.

James A. Eiler, of this family, was a gallant Confederate soldier; and Mrs. Dr. Harvey Kyle was a daughter of George Eiler.

The late A. H. Eiler of Harrisonburg was a son of Mr. William Eiler.

The Herring Family

Alexander Herring settled in the Dayton neighborhood prior to 1755, and the family has long been prominently identified with the history of Rockingham County. Some of them were officers in the Revolution; and, in 1781, Alexander Herring and James Laird were collectors of the specific tax in Rockingham County.

The Christian name of Captain Abraham Lincoln's wife was Bathsheba, and as this name occurs only in the Herring family in Rockingham County it is believed that the grandmother of President Lincoln was Bathsheba Herring, a daughter of Alexander Herring.

The Brewster Family

James Brewster patented land adjoining John Stephenson and Archibald Houston in 1754. His home was at the intersection of the Keezletown Road and the Lower Road, leading from Port Republic to Harrisonburg; and for many years the Bowmans and then the Harrisons lived at this place, now owned in more recent years by the Reverend Charles Long.

The Brewster house was one of the ancient structures in the Cross Keys vicinage and stood until about 1880, or later. It was built of logs, weather-boarded, ceiled and plastered within, and the eaves of the house came down within about seven feet of the ground.

James Brewster served as a soldier in the American Revolution, according to the Rockingham County records, and was a prominent member of the Peaked Mountain Church; and the deed for that church was recorded by his son, Thomas Brewster. After the Revolution James Brewster sold his Rockingham lands and moved to Jessamine County, Kentucky, where the family became prominent.

The Keezell Family

George Keezell came to Rockingham County, probably from one of the southeastern counties of Pennsylvania, prior to the Revolution, and settled near the village which bears his name. For many years the Keezletown Road, which, as shown elsewhere, was the "Indian Road" of 1722, was called the "Great Road"; and over it passed the trade of Southwest Virginia and Eastern Tennessee to Baltimore and other northern markets. This trade became so heavy that many ordinaries, or taverns, became a public necessity. For this reason George Keezell took out a tavern license. As shown in these sketches, John Snapp also kept a tavern at Mill Creek on the farm belonging to the heirs of Dr. E. A. Herring, and the old homestead of the Kempers at Cross Keys was an ordinary, or tavern.

George Keezell married Mary ————, and had at least one son, Bernard Keezell, who was a soldier in the War of 1812.

Honorable George B. Keezell, for many years prominent in the state government of Virginia and also in the county government of Rockingham, is a descendant of George Keezell.

Tories

In 1778 there was a Tory uprising near the Peaked Mountain, due probably to the influence of Felix Gilbert, the old merchant at Cross Keys, who was considered at one time a Tory during the Revolution. The uprising probably occurred in the Penn Laird neighborhood. Apparently the Tories were few in number and were soon suppressed by the Augusta militia. These facts are recited in McAllister's History of the Virginia Militia in the Revolution.

The Curry and Allied Families

Dr. Robert Curry settled in Augusta County, Virginia, in 1748, and his brothers, Nathan, David and Isaiah, came at about the same time to the Valley from Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. The Augusta County Currys descend from Dr. Robert Curry. One of them, Robert, married Margaret Anderson, daughter of James Anderson, of Rockingham County.

Isaiah Curry settled on War Branch in West Rockingham; and one of this family, James Curry, was a captain in the Continental Line during the Revolution, and after the War postmaster of Harrisonburg.

James Anderson married Margaret, daughter of William Blain of the Dry River section; and the Currys are allied by blood and by marriage with the Stuarts, Henrys, Chestnuts, Herrings and other prominent families of Rockingham County.
